

It is illegal to refuse to rent to you because you have children!

Denying housing to a family with children is discrimination—just like refusing to rent to you because of race, national origin, religion, source of income, sexual orientation or disability.

So, if a landlord says:

“Sorry, we don’t rent to kids” or

“You have kids under 6 and I won’t de-lead” or

“Your son and daughter can’t share a bedroom”;

You may have been the victim of housing discrimination.
