

Fair Housing Rights for applicants and residents of public and subsidized housing

If you are applying for public or subsidized housing, you may not be denied if:

- You have a criminal record that is related to a disability.
- You are a domestic violence survivor.
- You live in a group home.
- You have a disability.

In addition, you are not required to provide proof of medical treatment or proof that you are able to live independently.

If you think you have been a victim of housing discrimination, please call us!

Call the Connecticut Fair Housing Center at 860-247-4400 or 888-247-4401 toll free